

Please don't let the Do Not Call rulings be overturned. Family time and privacy is important. We don't need this time interrupted by sales calls. If I do start getting sales calls again, I'll make it a point NOT to buy any products/services associated with annoying telemarketing calls. Thank you.